Even at the end of 2020, small businesses have been on a financial roller-coaster as it comes to financial assistance. On December 1st, the Small Business Associate disclosed that of the $700B+ earmarked for business relief efforts, 1.9% went to small Black businesses.

NCBW Silicon Valley Chapter is excited to host an informative and interactive seminar, Surviving The COVID-19 Pandemic. The event will give real time information and advisement on the second distribution of COVID relief, organizations that are still funding PPP loans and grants, retaining and motivating employees and helpful end of year tax tips. Join NCBW-SVC on Saturday, December 19th for this informative seminar!

The first 25 attendees will receive a gift from NCBW-SVC.

December 19, 2020, 9-11 a.m. Learn how to survive Covid-19 small business owners. You have an opportunity to network while gaining insights on opportunities at our “Surviving Through COVID19 Pandemic: Business Series. RSVP
