and/or honor a father
in our community.

The AAACSA is soliciting your support to advertise in our virtual 41st Juneteenth in the Streets Virtual Festival Souvenir Program Book. Potentially the largest African American celebration in Silicon Valley, the festival attracts 6,000+ attendees of diverse ethnic and cultural backgrounds from surrounding cities, offering an optimal opportunity for your organization or business to be advertised and promoted throughout the South Bay.

We look forward to having you support this year's digital souvenir book by purchasing an ad. Proceeds from ad sales will be used to provide support for our programs and services.

Recognize members of your community

Every year at the Juneteenth Festival, the African American Community Services Agency looks to recognize the skills, leadership, advocacy, impact, and dedication of exceptional members of the community. This year, the AACSA would like to recognize the following individuals, non-profit organizations, and businesses for their contributions here in Santa Clara County.

Lula Briggs Galloway Community Impact Award: Dr. Bryon Breland

Leader of the Year Award: Aileen Casanave

Small Black Business Award:
Black Girls Mean Business and
Nirvana Soul

Advocate of the Year Award:
Carmen Brammer

Save The Dates!

The celebration will kick off with a week of events leading up to the Juneteenth in the Street Festival on June 18. The location of this year's festival in the SoFa district will allow us to highlight small businesses impacted by the pandemic. Additionally, the centralized location of the festival will allow us to center the Black experience in San Jose. We will use this space and opportunity to highlight, uplift, and celebrate the perseverance of our community. There will be more information to come, however, save the date for the week of events.

- Juneteenth Kick-Off | Sunday, June 12th
